Autumn Term - Second Half

We hope this newsletter finds you all well and that you all had a lovely half-term!

Our new topic for this half-term is 'Autumn Festivals and Christmas'. We have started with Halloween and bonfire activities, and will be learning about Diwali and Remembrance Day. Then followed by Christmas fun.

Key Worker and Parent Chat

In the next few weeks, we will be contacting you to arrange a suitable date and time to discuss your child's development and answer any questions you may have.

Library Scheme

We hope that you and your child are enjoying spending time reading together with their chosen book.

Just a reminder, that there is a very good website with tips, advice, activities and child development milestones is; -

BBC TINY HAPPY PEOPLE. Just type this into your search engine and explore the vast variety of information the site provides.

5 Good Reasons to READ to your child include: -

1. It helps you and your child to bond.
2. It helps to increase your child's vocabulary.
3. It helps to grow your child's imagination.
4. It helps develop a love for reading.
5. It helps in academic growth.

Any feedback would be greatly appreciated.

Wellies & Winter Clothing

As we are now coming into the winter months, please could you supply your child with appropriate clothing, i.e., suitable coat and footwear (wellies/boots), gloves and hats.
